

Welcome letter of President of Association of Clinical Laboratory Diagnostics Specialists of the Kyrgyz Republic
Turkmenova E.M.

Dear friends!

On behalf of the Association of Clinical Laboratory Diagnostics Specialists of the Kyrgyz Republic, I welcome you to the 16th International Specialized Healthcare Exhibition MedExpo Kyrgyzstan 2022.

Improvement of the quality of life and protection of the citizens' health remain priority vectors for the development of the Kyrgyz Republic. Thanks to scientific achievements, technological progress, covering most areas of the economy and public life, as well as the dedicated work of medical practitioners, the state manages to withstand the main threats of our time.

Bringing together doctors and scientists, businessmen and civil servants, officials and ordinary citizens, healthcare exhibition MedExpo Kyrgyzstan 2022 with no doubt makes an invaluable contribution to the development of the industry and support of the medical sector.

The unique exposition is a relevant tool for promoting the products of world manufacturers in the market of the republic and realizing the potential of domestic companies abroad. The audience has the opportunity to get acquainted with the latest achievements in the field of healthcare, get useful first-hand information and consult with experts.

I am sure that the international exhibition MedExpo Kyrgyzstan 2022 will contribute to a productive exchange of experience and opinions, strengthening professional interaction and increasing trade turnover.

I wish the participants and guests success, lucrative contracts, useful contacts and new knowledge.

President of Association of Clinical Laboratory
Diagnostics Specialists of the Kyrgyz Republic
